LIST OF THE DEAD MAY BE LENGTHENED

Further Details of the Electric Train Wreck.

FIFTY IN A SERIOUS CONDITION

It is Likely that the Death List Will Be Largely Increased in the Next Twenty-Four Hours—Investigating Cause of the Accident.

New York, Feb. 19.—Twenty dead, [illegible] fatally hurt and 145 others more [illegible] less seriously injured, is the result of the wreck of an electric express train on the New York Central Railroad at 205th street and Webster avenue Saturday night.

Of the large number of injured, 50, according to the hospital and police reports, are seriously hurt and the death list may be increased within the next twenty-four hours.

Most of the others are suffering from lacerations or shock and will recover. In addition to these, the New York Central railroad has a list of 125 names of persons said to have been injured, but in the great majority of the cases the injuries were so slight as to be of little consequence, and most of the persons went at once to their homes.

Sunday was a day of investigation, and inquiry by representatives of the district attorney's office, the coroner and the police. When daybreak came, the police lists of dead had increased to 18, and an hour after ther were two more deaths reported.

The cause of the wreck is still a matter of speculation. All night Inspector Flood, of the police department; Coroner Schwannecke and Assistant District Attorney Smythe, together with other members of the district attorney's office force, looked over the scene, and sought to determine the cause of the derailment of the train. The result of their investigation may become known when the inquest is held by the coroner.

Coroner Schwannecke has secured a statement from Motorman Rogers of the wrecked train. In this, according to the coroner, the motorman had stated that the accident occurred, and admitted that the speed of his train was 70 miles an hour. Rogers, said the coroner, declared that he did not know anything was wrong until the eighth of a mile beyond the place of the derailment.

The train consisted of a double-header motor coupled onto one engine, with one motorman, drawing five coaches. The first was a smoker, the second is described as a power car, though it is commonly designated as a combination baggage and smoker, and the three following were ordinary passenger coaches.

Police Arrest Rebels.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 19.—The social revolutionists have been holding meetings in the university building here, under the cover of university autonomy. The police, however, surrounded the university, arrested 71 revolutionists and seized 1,500 poung weight of incendiary proclamations. The prefect of police has issued an order for the arrest of all persons distributing election literature in behalf of the liberal party, and Monday closed two printing estiblishments where radical ballots were being prepared.

Dispensaries Closed Monday.

Columbia, S. C., Feb. 19—Governor Martin F. Ansel, late Sunday night issued a proclamation instructing all dispensaries to close their doors onday and remain closed until the county boards are appointed and take charge of the dispensaries. This means that the dispensaries wil not open their doors at all again until the counties have taken charge. It is likely that the state will have complete prohibition for several days.

Twelve Men Injured in Mine.

Washington, W. Va., Feb. 19.—[illegible] have been received here of [illegible] at the Yuma mine, at [illegible] which twelve men were [illegible], three fatally. All [illegible] miners.

MERCHANT SHOT ON STREETS.

Wilcox Claimed That Buttrey Was Despoiler of His Home.

Decatur, Ala., Feb. 19.—J. A. Buttrey, a wealthy dry goods merchant of New Decatur, was shot through the side by Robert Wilcox, a mechanic employed in the Louisville and Nashville railroad shops, as he was going down the street to his hotel. The wound is not serious. Both men were arrested and released on bond. The supposed cause of the shooting is of two years' standing. Wilcox accused Buttrey as the despoiler of his home. Both men have wives and several children. Recently Buttrey's wife sued him for divorce on this account. Each man accuses the other of firing the first shot.

Buttrey says he didn't shoot at all; that he ran when Wilcox fired, and that he fell and that Wilcox took his revolver from him and struck him over the head with it when the police interfered. Wilcox had a hole through his coat made by a revolver ball. Buttrey has a scar on his head made by a lick from the revolver. Buttrey came here from Nashville and opened a store. Wilcox has lived here for a number of years, and has borne a good reputation as a hard working and honest man.

DOSED MOTHER WITH POISON.

On that Charge Well-To-Do New York Woman is Arrested.

New York, Feb. 19.—Mrs. Lottie Wallau, wife of a well-to-do importer of bronzes, was arraigned before Coroner Acitelli, charged with murder in the first degree in having caused the death of her mother, Mrs. Ida Binge, by the use of posion. She is held without bail to await the inquest, which will open Wednesday.

Mrs. Binge, a wealthy widow who lived with her daughter and the latter's hunband and 20-year-old son, Alexander, died on Feb. 6, three weeks after she had undergone an operation for cancer.

It was on the report of Drs. Witthaus and Degay, who had examined the kidneys and liver of Mrs. Binge, that they had found considerable quantities of bichloride of mercury present, that an information was drawn by Assistant District Attorney Corrigin, in which the warrant charging murder in the first degree was issued. In champagne, some of which it is charged had been administered to Mrs. Binge by Mrs. Wallau, Dr. Degay and Peter Austin, a chemist, declared they also found considerable bichloride of mercury.

Raised $1 Bills to $20.

Athens, Ga., Feb. 19.—T. W. Hall, a white man about 45 years old, was arrested on the charge of raising bills from $1 to $10 and $20. He was tried before United States Commissioner Kinnebrew Saturday night and bound over to the federal court. He was caught at the dispensary Saturday afternoon, having sent a negro man in with a raised $20 bill to buy liquor. On his body beneath his top shirt was found a quantity of confederate money, and in his purse several pieces of this money from which he had cut the figures to use in raising the genuine bills.

Tried to Wreck the Train.

Binghamton, N. Y., Feb. 19.—L. D. Harrington, of Sidney, was arrested here after being indicted by the Delaware county grand jury on the charge of attempting to wreck an Ontario and Western Passenger train on the night of March 9, 1906. The indictment and arrest followed a sworn statement made by rs. Harry Cotton, who testified that she and Harrington had planned the wreck so that he could rob the passengers who would be killed and injured, and thereby obtain money so that he and rs. Colton could elope to the west.

Ice Was Broken; Boys Drown.

Dixon, Ills., Feb. 19.—John Hilbert, Ralph Schartner and Lauren Nye, boys, broke through the ice and drowned in Rock River Sunday. They with two other lads, the oldest 10 years, were playing on the ice when Nye broke through. Hilbert, in a vain attempt to rescue Nye, fell into the icy water. Schartner followed in a like attempt. A fourth boy likewise fell into the water, but he was saved by the remaining boys.

GOVERNOR BROWARD IS THE MAIN FIGURE

In the Political Struggles In Florida.

POLITICS HAD NO ERA OF GOOD

Since Governor's Inauguration Two Years Ago His Every Policy Has Met the Stern Opposition of the Forces Which Opposed Him.

Tallahassee, Fla., Feb. 19.—Six weeks hence the Florida legislature will meet in this city in regular biennial session, which will last sixty days. It will be the second and last legislative session during Governor Broward's administration, and while it cannot be said that there is urgent need for a great amount of legislation, it seems entirely certain that the session will be one of the liviliest, scrappiest and most interesting held in Florida for many years.

Since Goverfior Broward's inauguration over two years ago, his administration and all of the policies which he has adopted and advocated have had the persistent and unyielding opposition of the forces which opposed his election. This has been no era of good feeling in Florida politics. Devotion to, and passion against, Governor Broward have been very pronounced; yet the personal and political strength of this unusual man seem to have suffered no diminuation. The masses of the people undoubtedly believe in him.

It is not at all certain whether the legislature will be organized by the friends or by political foes of the governor. It does seem certain, that not matter by whom it may be organized, there will be forces in its membership at work who will lead an uncompromising, tireless fight against the present administration, particularly against Governor Broward.

At the general election last November the governor suffered a temporary defeat. During the campaign which preceded he had thrown his entire strength into the support of an amendment to the state constitution incoropating into that fundamental law mandatory provision for the drainage of the Florida Everglades. The policy back of this fight was to save the 3,000,000 acres of public lands, title to which is still vested in the trustees of the internal improvement fund, from the claims of land grant railroads and other corporations, and to drain these lands for the benefit of settlers who might purchase them from the state. The same forces which had opposed Governor Broward prior to his nomination in 1904 led the fight against the constitutional amendment, which he so warmly espoused. The opposition won. It was the most decisive defeat which the governor had ever encountered.

Yet the governor was in no sense dismayed. The last legislature had enacted a statute providing for the drainage of the Everglades; and, even without that enactment, it is claimed by the administration that it was both authorized and required by a old law to carry out these drainage operations.

The administration has been hampered more by suits in the courts than by the vote at the polls. The work of drainage has been somewhat impeded by the issuance of injunctions obtained in the federal courts by the claimants to the lands. These suits attack the constitutionality of the statutes under which the administration is carrying on the drainage operations, as well as the sufficiency of the act of 1905, to authorize the levy of a drainage tax.

It is just here that the hardest fight of the legislative session may be expected to develop. The organization of the legislature is expected to furnish a test of strength between the opposing forces, and it is awaited with keenest interest all over Florida.

Barn Burner Sentenced.

Charlotte, N. C., Feb 19.—Gary Castle, negro, has been sentenced to serve fifteen years in the state prison on the charge of barn-burning.

PRESIDENT FALLIERES

Intervenes in the Ministerial Situation In France.

Paris, Feb. 19.—President Fallieres Monday intervened in the ministerial situation in the shape of composing the differences in the cabinet. He had a long conference with Premier Clemenceau, Education Minister Briand and other members of the cabinet, but the exact result is not as yet known

There are some reports to the effect that an agreement has been reached on a final formula for the contracts for the leases of churches, satisfactory to both M. Clemenceau and M. Briand, but the confirmation of the rumor is lacking and prevailing impression is that if M. Clemenceau does not fall from power, a re-organization of the ministry is practically certain.

The followers of ex-Premier Combs already are lined up against any new concessions. Their position is defined by the Action as follows:

According to the action of parliament, giving or refusing its assent the contract negotiated by M. Briand, the republic will be bound to Rome for eighteen years or free from interference.

The bitter hostility to the government's proposed income tax law causes to be an important feature of the ministerial crisis. The moderate papers believe that some of the socialist leaders are glad of the possibility of another struggle with the vatican because the socialists have become frightened at their own fiscal and social progress.

THAW TRIAL RESUMED.

Dr. Evans Again Takes the Witness Stand.

New York, Feb. 19.—The Thaw trial was resumed at 10:30 Monday morning. Dr. B. D. Evans, was called to the witness stand.

Dr. Evans said Thaw told him he had not wanted to kill White but had sought to bring him to trial and to justice, and would rather have thus humiliated him.

"But this was an act of providence," the prisoner said

Dr. Evans said Thaw told him Stanford White had hired the Monk Eastman gang to take him to death.

Dr. Charles G. Wagner was called as a witness in the Thaw trial.

Wichita., Kan., Feb. 19—In a sermon on morality, entitled "Woman's Rights," Dr. John Henry Cudlippe, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, declared that all the evidence in the Thaw trial should be printed. "I want to see every line of the Thaw evidence printed," said Dr. Cudlippe, "and I want to read it. I think the public should read it."

Arrested for Horse Stealing.

Columbus, Ga., Feb. 19.—Sheriff Mulling, of Harris county, has been in the city to carry Harold Holland back to Hamilton, where he is wanted on the charge of stealing a horse, bridle and saddle. Holland, who is a one-arm white man, reached the city at 1 o'clock Sunday night and was arrested shortly afterwards.

Challenges Members to Duel.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 19.—A story is current here that Prince Paul Dolgeroukoff, leader of the constitutional Democratic party who was expeled by unianimous vote from the imperial Russian yacht club, because of his anti-government teachings, has challenged every one of the members to a duel.

LIBERALS THREATEN TO WAR WITH U. S.

Want American Government to Get Out of Cuba.

PARTY IS VERY IMPATIENT

Over the American Withdrawal, Whenever It Was Promised, They Would Be Left Master of Cuba—If Protectorate, War to Follow.

New York, Feb. 19.—A dispatch to the Herald from Havana says that open, signed threats of war against the United States if it does not get out of Cuba are now being made by the leaders of the Liberal party to whom everything has been given by the American provisional government except absolute control.

The party is insatiable and impatient over the delay of the American withdrawal, whenever it was promised, they would be left master of Cuba.

These leaders, the dispatches say, resent the suggestion of the conservative classes that an American protectorate might be a surer guarantee of peace than the unbridled rule of any Cuban faction.

General Del Castillo in an article in El Rebelde, a liberal organ, states that the "imbeciles" who favor a protectorate must be struck down and that if annexation or a protectorate come, war will follow.

BRIDE CAUSED WELLS' ARREST

Charged Her Husband with Securing $2.900 from Her.

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 18—J. N. Wells, of Montgomery, who married Miss Georgia Haynes, of Jackson, Miss., in Memphis, Friday, was arrested here on a warrant sworn out by his bride, accusing him of bringing stolen property into Alabama.

He made bond and was released. Mrs. Wells declares that her husband secured $2,900 from her immediately after they were married in Memphis. She met him by appointment after having known him but a short while. She says she previously telegraped him $100 and that she has been unable to get back any portion of the money.

Wells says that he has the money and that his bride is laboring under a misapprehension. He conducts a furniture store in Montgomery, Ala.

Throat Was Cut; Man May Die.

Jasper, Ga., Feb. 19.—George Corn cut and seriously, if not fatally, wounded John Cowart about 10 o'clock at Marble Hill ito the east in this county Sunday. The report from the scene of the difficulty is the two men were drinking and Corn, being the aggressor, cut Cowart's throat, severing the windpipe. The doctors attending Cowart say he cannot recover. The sheriff left here in company of William McCloud to arrest Corn, who is said to be in the settlement where the difficulty occurred, defying arrest. Corn came from Lumpkin county. It is said his brother killed their own brother in that county a few years ago. Cowart came from Dawson county. Both men were employed at some of the marble works.

Refusal Causes Sensation.

Rio de Janeiro, Feb. 19.—The refusal of the Rothschilds to float the coffee loan has caused a sensation here. The Journale de Commercio says the rebuke should convince the government that the coffee scheme is a dangerous adventure which should be dropped.

PEACE AND MORALS ORDINANCE

Adopted On Third Reading and Approved by the Mayor.

IT IS NOW LAW OF THE CITY

New Ordinance Providing For Impounding Stock Passed to Third Reading and Ordered Engrossed. Franchise Ordinance.

The City Council convened in regular adjourned session Tuesday at 3 p. m. Present: President Broome, Aldermen Benson, Bunch, Hodges, Taylor, and Clerk Dell.

The ordinance known as the "Peace and Morals Ordinance" was taken up on its third reading and adopted, Alderman Hodges casting the only dissenting vote, who explained that he did so because the ordinance discriminated by not requiring the livery stables to close on Sunday as well as other places of business. The ordinance was immediately approved by the mayor and is now a law.

J. D. Stringfellow appeared before the Council and asked that Arredondo street, between Masonic and Liberty, be opened, contending that the block on that portion of the west side of Arredondo street was enclosed to such extent as to obstruct 20 feet of the street. On motion of Alderman Taylor the mayor was instructed to cause to be removed all obstructions on Arredondo streets, between Liberty and Masonic.

The Franchise Ordinance was referred to the Board Public Works, with the request that they report to the Council the advisability of passing or rejecting same.

Alderman Taylor, on behalf of the Ordinance Committee, introduced an ordinance providing for the impounding of stock running at large within the city limits and providing a penalty therefor. The ordinance provides a fee of $2 50 for each cow impounded, together with 25 cents for each day's feed, 50 cents for preparing notice of advertisement and 50 cents for the sale of each cow not reclaimed within three days, one-half of the fee for release to go to the officer impounding the stock. The penalty for breaking open the pound and letting cattle out is a fine not exceeding $500 or imprisonment not exceeding sixty days.

Alderman Bunch offered an amendment reducing the fee for impounding to $1, but could get no second to his motion. He also favored making a limit of territory in which stock should be taken up, but he was also alone in this proposition.

The ordinance was passed on its first and second readings and ordered engrossed.

The Council adjourned until Thursday, February 21st, at 3 p. m.

THE SMITH SHOWS OPENED UP WELL

Second Day Found Everything Running Smoothly All Along.

THE SHOW IS A CLEAN ONE

All Attractions Are First-Class, Clean and Moral, and the Great Crowds Were Delighted With Everything They Saw—Will Remain for Week.

Tuesday was the second day of the Gainesville street carnival and it was a success from every standpoint. A better and cleaner list of attractions was never brought to this city than the Smith Greater Shows which are spending the week here, and the result is universal satisfaction. Tuesday was a great day for the business men in charge of the show, for the show people and the public in general.

There was a large crowd of orderly people up town last night and all of the shows were well patronized. The manager of every show guarantees to please the people who buy tickets and if after the exhibition is over anyone is dissatisfied he may go to the ticket-seller and his admission money will be returned.

The pay shows are without exception good, and every one is worth the small admission charged. The wild animal show is drawing large crowds and outside the animal exhibits there is one act that eclipses all others when Captain Recordo, the animal trainer, enters the cage of "Satan," the untamable lion. The colored aristocracy show given by "down South" negroes is one of the crowd-drawing attractions. But the most beautiful, most marvelous and best exhibition to be seen is the "Zora" show.

Among the pay attractions are the following: The Trained Wild Animal Show, Mysterious Zora, Beautiful Gloriana, Colored Aristocracy, Electric Theater, Mammoth Ferris Wheel, and Smith's $10,000 Prize Carousal.

The country people and people from neighboring cities and towns are especially invited to come to town this week and have a good time. The business men are confident that there are entertainments here that will please all and they will endeavor to make all visitors feel welcome and will do all they can to make them have a good time. Everybody who can should come to town during the week and unite in having a jolly good time.

RELIGION PRINCIPAL FACTOR.

By Which Negroes of South Could Be Made Valuable Citizens.

New York, Feb. 19.—Justice David J. Brewer, of the United States supreme court told the congregation in the Broadway Tabernacle Sunday that in his opinion, religion was the principal factor by which the negroes of the south could be converted into a valuable asset of the nation, "we know that there is ignorance, criminality and immorality among the negroes," he said, "and it remains with us to change present conditions so that the negro will become a helpful factor in our civilization and progress. I believe that there is a divine providence which will so shape our history and the negro will be a helpful factor. We must all assist in bringing about this end. Industrial development, cleanliness, education and other benevolent and useful things are good for the negro, but I believe nothing will help him so much as the influence as the cross of Christ and move Him to bring a good and useful citizen as the gospel of the Prince of Peace."

Rapid changes of temperature are hard on the toughest constitution.

The conductor passing from the heated inside of a trolley car to the icy temperature of the platform—the canvasser spending an hour or so in a heated building and then walking against a biting wind—know the difficulty of avoiding cold.

Scott's Emulsion strengthens the body so that it can better withstand the danger of cold from changes of temperature.

It will help you to avoid taking cold.

Mrs. Rockefeller III.

New York, Feb. 19.—That he might save two hours on his hasty trip from Augusta, Ga., John D. Rockefeller had his automobile meet him at Trenton, N. J., Friday night and drove 60 miles across the state to Lakewood, N. Y., in less than three hours. His anxiety to reach Mrs. Rockefeller who was ill with the grip was so great that he could not brook the delays in making connections by rail. Mr. Rockefeller attended the Baptist church Sunday and at the close of the services members of the congregation surrounded him and made inquiries regarding Mrs. Rockefeller. "She had a severe cold, but she is quite well now," was his answer.

Men Past Sixty in Danger.

More than half mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate gland. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rock Port, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now 91 years old." M. B. Warner Found Dead.

Atlanta, Feb. 19.—Despondency as a result of continued ill health is believed to have been the cause of the supposed suicide of M. B. Warner, a traveling salesman for the Tripod Paint company, who was found dead in bed late Sunday afternoon at the Stag hotel by his brother, Archie B. Warner. When last seen Saturday, Mr. Warner was in low spirits. He underwent an operation for appendicitis last fall and had since failed to regain his strength. The torn fragments of a druggist's envelope were found in the room, the supposition being that it had contained some drug.

Hunting for Trouble.

Castro's Condition Weakens.

Machuto, Venezuela, Feb. 17, via Willemstad, Feb. 18.—In spite of the daily bulletins issued by the government, announcing an improvement of President Castro's health he had gradually weakened since he underwent the recent operation and his condition is now more serious than ever before. It is even affirmd that his physicians entertain no hope of his recovery. His temperature is reported to be 103, gangrene is said to have set in, and the end is alleged to be expected shortly.

Rising From the Grave.

A prominent manufacturer, Wm. A. Fertwell, of Lucama, N. C., relates a most remarkable experience. He says: "After taking less than three bottles of Electric Bitters, I feel like one rising from the grave. My trouble is Bright's disease, in the Diabetes stage. I fully believe Electric Bitters will cure me permanently, for it has already stopped the liver and bladder complications which have troubled me for years." Guaranteed at all druggists'. Price only 50c.

It is a question whether it would not be easier to write a new constitution instead of revising it to the extent that some of its friends and enemies want done.

And now they are saying that a negro appointment in Ohio will keep Son-in-law Nick at home. The President will find it easier to teach by a black object lesson in the South than in the North

An esteemed contemporary has the word of a scientist for it that no man is in perfect health who ever wants a drink. And this agrees perfectly with the statement of another paper that not one man in 10,000 enjoys perfect health.

What a terrible mortuary list of bills this Congress will produce when the day of adjournment arrives, and unfortunately the dead ones are mostly what the people wanted. But the appropriation bills have been increased by the Republican majority by hundreds of millions.

The election in Germany is quite likely to develop a good-sized scandal, based on the charge that money has passed from the Imperial Chancellor's office to a political organization, the Naval League, which was used in the interest of candidates favorable to the government. The Republicans of Ohio will have to submit to the appointment of one of their colored brethren to a lucrative Federal office, for the President is bound to give Senator Foraker a dose of his own medicine and show that in discharging the colored troops he was not prejudiced against darkey officials. The Sun is requested by the Ladies' Cemetery Association to call attention to the fact that it is against the laws of the Association to fell shade trees in the cemetery. Recently two trees were cut down by the owner of a lot without consulting the Association, but the ladies feel confident that the owner was not aware that it was a violation of the laws. The lots are sold with the distinct understanding that shade trees shall not be removed without the consent of the Executive Committee, and it is to be hoped that this rule will not again be violated. The work of the Cemetery Association is a labor of love on the part of the ladies, and everyone should assist them in their laudable efforts to beautify the grounds.

MR. ROCKEFELLER'S BIG GIFT.

Several of the metropolitan newspapers of the country, discussing Mr. Rockefeller's recent gift, say that the colleges to be selected as beneficiaries of the same will form a chain stretching across the continent, but colleges not so favored will be left to their fate and will end in many of them closing their doors. If this reasoning be true Mr. Rockefeller's liberality will result in a positive injury.

Adding his recent gifts to his earlier ones the philanthropy of this man is, indeed, imperial, and foot up a grand total of $92,000,000.

What if these gifts had been given to the rural schools of the country, what a stimulus it would have given them? The benefits would have been felt in every community throughout the land and Mr. Rockefeller's praise would have been sung by a million voices daily from the Great Lakes to the Gulf and from ocean to ocean.

The great universities are being pampered too much! The little schools need a little philanthropic solicitude!

The distribution of a hundred millions to supplying and strengthening our rural schools with the rudimentary appliances, that will serve "as stepping stones to higher things," would work a miracle as great as the lump of leaven, the effects of which are so familiar in every household. There is no estimating the good that would flow from it.

As bread cast upon the waters the gift would multiply a hundred-fold, would strengthen the pillars of our republic, would produce a better understanding between the rich and the poor, would bring them more nearly together, and in a hundred ways would produce good and permanent results.

What a pity this last gift cannot be diverted.—Ocala Banner.

TEACHERS' BIBLE INSTITUTE

Rev W. J. Carpenter, president of the Teachers' Bible Institute, announces that the Institute will be held at the First Methodist Church auditorium, Tampa, March 10th to 17th inclusive, and will be supported by all of the churches in the city for the purpose of assisting Sunday school teachers in their work for training the children, and for the benefit of all Bible students. It has been determined to open this Institute to all Sunday school superintendents, teachers and workers, as well as Bible students in the State, and invite them to share in the benefits to be derived from the combination of great teachers. Every worker is urged to be present.

This Institute will be conducted by Dr. H. M. Hamill, Superintendent of the Teachers' Training Department of the Methodist Church, and one of the ablest men in his line. Dr. Hamill will be assisted by Mrs. Hamill, who will have charge of the primary work, and also by Marion Lawrence, Toledo, O., Secretary of the International Sunday School Association. Mr. Lawrence is one of the most widely known Sunday school workers in the United States. Professor Sherer, president of the Lutheran College of North Carolina, a prominent Bible teacher, will also be included in the faculty, together with other well known Sunday school workers. These are all specialists in their line and combine the best talent to be had.

The railroad managers have voted to increase freight rates and compel shippers to put more goods in the cars, but they had better be careful or they will raise a storm to which the demand for rate regulation will appear as a zephyr. UNCLE SAM AS COLLECTOR.

The British Corporation of Foreign Bondholders have just made their thirty-third report on the collection of debts from defaulting republics of Latin-America, and state they are relying on the United States with its big stick to accomplish what their own government has failed to do. It appears that Costa Rica, Guatemala and Honduras are all in default, and that "no serious attempt is being made to pay a penny," but the bondholders are relying upon the statement of President Roosevelt that it is the duty of the United States to see that these republics "act with decency in industrial and political matters and pay their obligations." The report declares, however, that it is somewhat disappointing that nothing, so far as the bondholders are aware, has yet been done by President Roosevelt in the direction indicated.

It might be well for these bondholders to know that there has been a brake applied to the application of the "big stick doctrine," and that Congress has so far refused to permit the President to go into the collecting business even in the modified plan proposed for Santo Domingo, though the Republican members of the Senate are now said to be willing to ratify the new Santo Domingo treaty.

The editor of The Sun desires to assure each and every official of the City of Gainesville, and especially members of the City Council, that there never has been, and never will be, any wilful misrepresentation of their action upon any public measure. We believe that each of them is guided by what he considers for the best interests of the city. Errors may from time to time be made in reporting official proceedings, but there is no intention on the part of the reporter to misrepresent anyone. He has a large field to cover, and it is impossible for him to be at two places at the same time. The Sun prides itself upon giving the people of Gainesville the best local paper published in any inland town in the State, and we are not ashamed of comparison with any contemporary in this line.

Special privileges to none, equal privileges to all—that's sound doctrine. And yet, because some men have not the ability to use all their privileges, they pass to another. There can be no waste in their realm. To take it out of one pocket is to slip it into another. Are you, because of one's sheer incapacity, going to condemn another because he happens to have more than his fellow? You might make an equal division of all the world's gold and in a while there would still be millionaires. It isn't a question of loot and piracy every time. More often is it the capacity of the one and the incapacity of the other to handle Nature's equally distributed riches. Do you see?

STOLEN SECURITIES LOCATED.

Most of Them Have Been Found with Reputable Brokerage Houses.

New York, Feb. 19.—It was stated Monday most of the securities stolen from the New Britain Savings bank by William F. Walker, its former treasurer, have been located.

Most of them have been found with reputable brokerage houses and efforts are now being made for their restoration to the Connecticut institution. Walker, it is understood, disposed of about $20,000 worth of the securities a few days before he vanished from the hotel Cumberland, and he is believed to have had a large amount of cash when he departed.

Officials of the bank had a lengthy conference Sunday night at the Waldorf-Astoria with Noah Cornwall Rogers, attorney for the bank. I will say only this, said Mr. Rogers, "we are making every possible effort to locate Mr. Walker, and we have hope of succeeding. We have decided to work secretly. It is known that persons interested in the case believe that Walker will be located within a week. They scout the idea that he committed suicide, and believe he left New York in disguise."

I thought at the time I was taken down with this trouble that it would be a week before I could get about, but on applying your liniment several times during the night, I was about in 48 hours and well in three days." THE EDIFYING SOLDIER.

Sketch of One of the Great German Toy Warehouses.

The Troedel market is on a little island in the heart of the old town of Nuremberg. Along the north branch of the river is an old, low eaved house with a little dazzling doorway. When you have got so far you are met by a little old man—a rusty little man who looks as though he were made of metal—who leads you into the great mysterious warehouse of toys.

Round all the walls they are ranged—guns, cannons, motors, steamships, trumpets, sabers, and everywhere the soldiers. How many millions of meek soldiers have marched away from the Troedel market not even the rusty old man could tell you—mighty articles of pewter and tin.

Hundreds of regiments of battalions of divisions, are drawn up on the shelves, waiting for the day when they shall be sent out into battle. And with a kind of pride the rusty old man says, "They are edifying soldiers."

That is the German way of putting it. What it means is that each army illustrates a battle or a campaign—the war of Troy, the campaigns of Alexander, the exploits of Coeur de Lion, the war of thirty years, the siege of Orleans, the victories of Napoleon, the battles of 1870 and the one I liked best of that desperate battle in which a tiny tin hero with gleaming teeth rough rode it up San Juan hill. In a word, the edifying soldiers teach history, geography, strategy.—Vance Thompson in Everybody's.

Shingling a House.

And I looked and beheld seven carpenters shingling a house. They were hauling up bundles of shingles that had been lying in the rain for two days and nailing them on one by one. In a few days the shingling will be done. Then the painter will come along with his ladders and brushes and stains, and $300 will be spent by the owner of the cottage to have it thoroughly dabbed. And in a little while the sun will shine, and all the shingles will buckle, some up, some down, until the cottage will resemble a frizzled chicken. And there will be leaks and cursings and lamentations. Now, brethren, why not be sensible in these small matters? Painters are not needed at all in a case of this kind. Keep your shingles dry; buy a few barrels of stain; soak the shingles in the stain and throw them on the grass to dry; then nail them to the clapboards. They will never buckle, they will never leak, and you have saved $300.—New York Press.

A Valuable Lesson.

"Six years ago I learned a valuable lesson," writes John Pleasant of Magnolia, Ind. "I then began taking Dr. King's New Life Pills, and the longer I take them the better I find them." They please everybody. Guaranteed at all druggists'. 25c.

Forest Air.

There is a general impression that the humidity of the air is greater in the woods than in the open fields. This is contradicted, however, by the result of observations made in Germany. It was found there that the humidity, both relative and absolute, was slightly greater in the open than in the woods, and this was true equally in the morning and in the afternoon. As to the temperature of the air among the trees, it was a trifle higher than in the open in the morning and in a more marked degree in the afternoon.

Dickens' Interest in Inns.

"Pickwick" is the very Odyssey of inns and travel, for the youthful Dickens had traversed England as a reporter, and in "Pickwick" alone no fewer than fifty-five inns, taverns, etc., in London and the provinces are mentioned and often described at length.—London Chronicle.

THE TABERNACLE.

Services of Bible Conference Largely Attended Tuesday.

The services at the Tabernacle Tuesday were well attended, morning, afternoon and night. In the morning at 9:45 Prof. Brown gave his lecture and instruction on the Bible, which was followed by Dr. Gwilym at 11 o'clock. Dr. Gwilym delivered another of his great sermons on "The Epistle to the Romans in Relation to Modern Thought." He is a most fluent talker and a man who knows how to get down to the bottom of a subject. He will always be welcomed here.

In the afternoon Prof. Miller delivered a fine lecture on the Bible, and in the evening Rev. George Stuart entertained a large congregation in one of his famous sermons, in which he held the attention of those who came for more than an hour.

The services today will be 9:45 a. m., Bible lecture by Prof. Brown; 11 a. m., sermon by Dr. Gwilym (the last of the series). At 3 o'clock this afternoon there will be a sermon by Prof. Miller, and at 7:30 sermon by Rev. George Stuart.

YOUTHFUL FORGERS.

John Brown, Alias George Long, and Taylor Dixon, in Trouble.

Two youthful alleged forgers, John Brown, alias George Long, nine years old, and Taylor Dixon, about eleven years old, are in the custody of Marshal Chas. Pinkoson, who arrested them Tuesday afternoon upon a charge of forging checks. It is understood they attempted to pass checks which were forged for about $50.

They claim they found the checks in a trash box on the street, but their stories do not agree, and the officer is holding them for further investigation. They did not succeed in realizing any cash on the checks.

A Romantic Story.

Marshal Charles Pinkoson has another feather in his cap of bravery, since he succeeded the other day in rescuing a fine Jersey milch cow, the property of J. Fletcher Hill, from a "muddy grave."

County Commissioner Pedrick, with three boys, was out driving to the west of Gainesville Sunday afternoon, when he discovered a fine cow in the "bog" near Hogtown creek. Realizing the precarious position of the animal and with a heart full of tenderness, probably caused by a fondness for milk, he endeavored, with the assistance of the boys, to drag the animal from its pitfall of certain death.

Mr. Pedrick and the boys were unsuccessful, however, and as he expressed it, the harder they would pull and "let the animal down," the deeper in the mud she would get.

Commissioner Pedrick returned to the city to announce the distress. He notified Marshal Pinkoson that a fine cow was in danger, explained her position, and the officer at once went forth to show his bravery. With the assistance of a few boys he finally pulled the cow out of her predicament, but on Monday morning the poor animal died from the effects.

A card of thanks is due the Marshal and his assistants for their aid in this direction.

Chas. White was arrested yesterday by Sheriff Fennell upon a charge of conducting a gambling stand. He was arraigned in Judge Mason's court, and fined $50 and costs, which was later reduced to $10 and costs, owing to the ignorance of the defendant as regarded the law, and his inabilaty to pay the original fine.
